

How many judges are there in the International Court of Justice?

How many judges are there in the International Court of Justice?

- a) 9
- b) 13
- c) 15
- d) 17

The International Court of Justice is composed of 15 judges elected for 9 year-terms. The United Nations General Assembly and the Security Council elect these judges. It is a permanent organ of the United Nations, headquartered in The Hague.