Kashmir Black Day is observed in Pakistan on:

- a) 25 October
- b) 26 October
- c) 27 October
- d) None of these

In Pakistan and Pakistani Held Kashmir, Kashmir Black Day is observed on October 27 every year. On this day in 1947, Indian forces illegally entered in Srinagar and illegally and against the aspiration of Kashmiris occupied their motherland. Protests and rallies are arranged to demonstrate that this occupation is illegal, and the Kashmir issue needs to be resolved as per United Nations resolutions.
