

What was the Theme of International Mountains Day 2022?

What was the Theme of International Mountains Day 2022?

- a) Beauty of Nature
- b) Mountains move the world
- c) Mountains are necessity
- d) Women move mountains

International Mountains Day is celebrated worldwide on 11th December each year. The theme of International Mountains Day 2022 is, “Women move mountains”. More than 15% of world’s population resides on mountains and more than half of biodiversity hotspots are on mountains. Mountains are also source of fresh water for humanity and a lot of food items are also come from mountains. Women are playing leading role in environment protection and economic sustainability.