

Who is Pakistan's permanent representative in UN?

Who is Pakistan's permanent representative in UN?

- a) Masood Khan
- b) Maleeha Lodhi
- c) Munir Akram
- d) Hussain Haqqani

Munir Akram is Pakistan's permanent representative to the United Nations. He is holding this post for second term. Previously he served held this post from 2002 to 2008. He was elected as seventy-sixth president of the Economic and Social Council on July 23, 2020.