

Who was the first governor general of British India (Sub-continent)?

Who was the first governor general of British India (Sub-continent)?

- a) William Butterworth Bayley
- b) Sir Charles Metcalfe
- c) Lord William Bentinck
- d) The Lord Ellenborough

The first Governor General of undivided India was Lord William Bentinck. The Charter Act of 1833 converted the post of Governor General of Bengal to the post of Governor General of India.