

Why is an autopsy performed?

Why is an autopsy performed?

- a) to determine the murder
- b) Conspiracy determination
- c) to determine the cause of death
- d) none of these

An autopsy is a detailed dissection of a dead body, and it is performed to determine the cause of death. A detailed autopsy is required in order to determine the cause, mode and manner of death.